

Team Rosters

Australia 1

Rod Chamberlain & Caroline Ross
Tim Cubit & Emma Flukes

Zealand, where they finished eighth. Both Cubit and Chamberlain finished in the top 10 at the 2005 Australian Laser Radial Nationals.

Rod Chamberlain

Tim Cubit

Emma Flukes

Caroline Ross

M. Sorrel-Saunders

Stewart Wells

Claire Cunningham

Nick Jones

Blair Spaulding

Prue Cunningham

George Peacock

Will Keyes

Australia 2

Nick Jones & Claire Cunningham
Blair Spaulding & Prue Cunningham
George Peacock & Will Keyes

Captain Claire Cunningham leads this team to the worlds after a second-place finish at the 2005 Australian Team Racing Champs. All six have top finishes in national team racing competitions. Jones, Spaulding, and Keyes teamed up to win the 2005 Australian Schools Team Racing title. Jones sailed in the 2003 Worlds.

Canada

Tine Moberg-Parker & Julie Hughes
Anne Marie Shewfelt & Hans Fisher
Kelly Bechard & David Sprague

Canada's best finish in the Team Racing Worlds was a fifth in 1995. Sprague, Hughes, and Shewfelt all hail from Toronto. Moberg-Parker, of Vancouver, is a former ISAF Women's world champion and raced the Europe dinghy for Canada at the 1996 Olympics.

Czech Republic

Petr Fiala & Kamilla Koutna
Martina Koutna & Michaela Preibischova
Jan Kittler & Barbora Soukupova

The Czech Republic hosted the 2001 World Championships, finishing ninth and 11th. Kittler was on the 11th-place squad. Martina Koutna and Preibischova are the Czech 420 champions and finished eighth in an ISAF Youth Worlds. Fiala is a Cadet European Champion.

*Color scheme denotes team's jersey color

Great Britain 1

Steve Tylecote & Toby Lewis
David Ellis & Damian Boreham
Rob Sherington & Melanie Sherington

Tylecote is a team-racing legend, having won the championships in 1995, finished second in 2003, and taken third in 2001. Sherington sailed with Tylecote in the 2003 Worlds and against him in the 2001 Worlds, finishing fifth. Tylecote, Ellis, Rob Sherington, and Melanie Sherington are the defending Wilson Trophy champs; it's Tylecote's sixth Wilson Trophy.

Great Britain 2

Stuart Hudson & Hamish Walker
Dom Johnson & Jen Heeley
Owen Modral & Linda Eadie

Also known as the New Forest Pirates. Hudson, Johnson, Modral, and Eadie finished fifth at the 2003 Worlds. Hudson has four Wilson Trophy championships on his resume. He also won the Hinman Championship (the U.S. Team Racing Championship) in 2001 along with Johnson and Tylecote of GBR 1.

India

Ramacharan Mahesh & G.L. Yadav
Nitin Mongia & Asha Dahiya
S.S Chauhan & R.S. Dhulaji

India sent two teams to Auckland in 2003, finishing 13th and 16th. Dhulaji, Ramacharan, and Mogia placed 13th in that event.

Ireland 1

John Sheehy & Rachel McManus
Max Treacy & Emma Lovegrove
Andrew Fowler & Eavan Gannon

Sheehy and Gannon are seven-time national team racing champs. Sheehy, Captain MacManus, Gannon, and Fowler finished fourth in the 2003 Worlds, while both Lovegrove and Treacy have previous worlds experience.

Conal Casey, Johnny Mayhew, Graham Elmes, (front) Fergal O'Shea, Gill Burke and Michelle Rowley

Ireland 2

Graham Elmes & Michelle Rowley
Johnny Mayhew & Fergal O'Shea
Conal Casey & Gill Burke

Ireland 2 represents the Royal St. George YC. O'Shea finished fourth in the 2003 Worlds; Mayhew is a three-time winner of the Wilson Trophy.

Italy

Luca Dubbini & Roberto Dubbini
Giulia Conti & Giovanna Micol
Fabio Zeni & Stefano Petissi

This is Italy's first Team Racing Worlds. Conti, the '01 Italian Women's National champion, sailed for Italy in the '04 Olympics, finishing 14th in the Yngling. Zeni is Italy's under-20 2005 Match Race Champion.

Japan 1

Tomoyuki Nakano & Siochiro Nagami
Hiromitsu Eiraku & Junichi Nohara
Masakuni Miyazaki & Ayako Yamaguchi

Nakano, Nagami, Nohara, Miyazaki, and Yamaguchi have nine All-Japan Team Racing Championships among them. Yamaguchi, Miyazaki, Eiraku, and Nohara competed in the 2003 Worlds in Auckland, finishing 14th. Eiraku finished eighth in the 2003 Laser Radial Worlds.

Japan 2

Kenichi Nanbara & Kazushi Sekimori
Kazuyoshi Momiyama & Yasuhiko Tsuge
Takashi Hirai & Keiko Sekimori

Also known as Aishisu Team. Momiyama won the 2003 Japanese Collegiate Boardsailing Championship and was ninth in the 2001 All-Japan FJ competition.

New Zealand 1

Greg Webster & Charlie Webster
Laurie Jury & Annmarie Waugh
Logan Sutherland & Georgina Hill

New Zealand won the Team Racing Worlds in 1999 and 2001 and finished third and ninth in 2003. Jury has competed in many top match-racing events this summer. Hill raced in both the ISAF Youth Worlds and the 420 Worlds. Sutherland was third in the 2005 Royal New Zealand Yacht Squadron Youth International Match Racing Championship.

New Zealand 2

Reuben Corbett & Bradley Farrand
Kevin Hooper & Blair Tuke
Olivia Powrie & Joe Foster

Corbett, Farrand, Hooper, and Foster finished first in the 2005 New Zealand High School Team Racing championships and second in the Open Team Racing Nationals. Powrie represented New Zealand in the 2005 Youth Worlds in Korea and the 2004 Worlds in Poland.

Carlos Lenz

Colin Merrick

Liz Hall

Patrick Hogan

Pete Levesque

Ery Largay

Karen Renzulli

Tim Fallon

Tim Wadlow

were part of the team that won the '03 worlds in Auckland. Along with Wadlow, a '04 Olympian in the 49er, this quartet finished second in 2001. Fallon, Ivey, Largay, Renzulli, and Wadlow are ICSA All-Americans. Wadlow and Ivey earned ICSA College Sailor of the year ('97 and '98, respectively.)

UNITED STATES 2

Patrick Hogan & Carlos Lenz

Pete Levesque & Liz Hall

Colin Merrick & Amanda Callahan

Also known as Silver Panda. Everyone except for Callahan competed in the 2003 Worlds, finishing sixth, and won the 2002 Hinman Trophy. This team, complete with Callahan, finished second at the 2005 Wilson Trophy. Hall, Hogan, Levesque, Merrick, and Callahan have all received ICSA All-American honors.

U.S. VIRGIN ISLANDS

Taylor Canfield & Nathan Rosenberg

Cy Thompson & Addison Caproni

Thomas Barrows & Sarah Swann

Canfield, Rosenberg, Thompson, and Barrows finished second at the 2005 U.S. High School Team Racing Championships. Thompson represented the U.S. Virgin Islands at the 2005 ISAF Volvo Youth Worlds. Barrows finished third at the 2005 U.S. Singlehanded Championship.

UNITED STATES 1

Tim Fallon & Karen Renzulli

Tim Wadlow & Ery Largay

Mark Ivey & Matt Linblad

Also known as Team Wishbone. Fallon, Renzulli, and Largay